Entertained the Old Man.

The employees of the Electric and Water company tendered their employer, G. H. Kordonat, a complimentary dinner yesterday afternoon at the home of L. H. Williams.

The following menu was served: Bouillion in cups, Lobster a la Newberg, rabbit pie, Fried chicken, Caviar, Cranberry sauce.

Mince pie, raisins, grapes, Nuts, tea, milk, Coffee.

Cigars Budweiser Claret.

After dinner the party assembled in the parlor where songs, recitations, and card playing were indulged in. During the afternoon Mr. Kordonat was presented with a beautiful pocket kit. To the surprise of all he in turn presented each employee with a suitable gift.

Retained on Shooting Case.

Attorney W. E. Whelan was in Marshfield last week, where he went on business connected with the recent shooting case in that vicinity.

John Stronaker of the town of Marshfield, was arrested for shooting Fred L. Froelich, and Mr. Whelan has been retained by the defendant.

Froelich was walking along the road when he was shot in the thigh.

Stronaker was accused of the deed because he and Froelich had been paying attention to the same young lady. Froelich has recovered sufficiently to be able to be about again. The case was called on the 26th, but an adjournment was taken.

Will Install New Electric Light Plant.

The city of Marshfield has purchased the machinery for a new electric plant, and when installed it is claimed that they will have an equipment that is thoroughly up to date in every respect.

When the plant was purchased by the city the machinery in the place was ready out of date and they have had to produce their electricity at a great loss compared with plants that are fitted out with modern machinery, and for this reason it was thought that the change would prove a saving in the long run. The equipment will consist of two Corliss engines and two new generators and both will be able to deliver 425 horsepower. New boilers will also be installed.

Officers Elected.

The Grand Rapids Poultry and Pot Stock association held its annual meeting on Friday afternoon at the office of Egger & Pratt. The attendance at the meeting was not as large as had been hoped for, but owing to the fact that the meeting came at an unusually busy time, it was as good as could be expected. The officers elected for the ensuing year were as follows:

President—H. H. Voss.
Vice president—H. A. Sampson, Jr.

Superintendent—B. G. Egger.
Secretary—C. M. Renne.

The members of the association are well pleased with the outcome of the election held this past year, and when all of the outstanding accounts are collected in there will be a small balance left in the treasury. They will hold their next show sometime during January, 1908, and there is no question but what it will be better than the one this year, as it is expected that it will be better advertised and that outside help will take more interest in it, owing to the fact that the association will be older and better established. The fact that the last exhibit was so well managed will aid them when the time comes for the next one. The membership of the association is also increasing, and this will be of considerable benefit to the concern.

Notice to Stockholders.

—To the stockholders of the Electric & Water Company:

Notice is hereby given, that the annual meeting of stockholders of the Electric & Water company will be held at the City Hall in the city of Grand Rapids on the West side on the 31st day of January, 1907, at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of electing directors and such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

It is necessary that a majority of the stock be present in order that any business may be transacted; each stockholder will please bear this fact in mind and be present either in person or represented by a proxy.

D. D. Conway,
Secretary.

Roy Lester Hurt.

Word was received here on Monday stating that Roy Lester had been severely injured by falling from a box car while engaged in performing his work as brakeman of the Northwestern road. The accident occurred at Westchester and he was picked up and taken to the hospital at Green Bay.

C. E. Lester, Roy's father, left here the same day for Green Bay to be at the bedside of his son.

Mr. Lester returned from Green Bay yesterday and reports that while the boy was considerably shaken up and bruised by the accident, no bones were broken and there is every indication that he will eventually entirely recover. It was certainly a narrow escape and he has every reason to be congratulated on the lucky outcome.

C. O. F. Officers.

List of officers for the St. Lawrence Court 1511, C. O. F. for the ensuing year:

Spiritual Director—Rev. J. M. Kor.

Past Chief Ranger—John Kollenda.
Recording Sec.—J. O. P. Quasi-groch.

Financial Sec.—Jos. Dyckman.
Treasurer—Joseph Lukasecki.

Medical Examiner—Dr. F. P. mainville.

Trustees—M. Pauloski, 1 year; John Slanec, 2 years; Max Urbanski, 3 years.

D. H. C. R.—M. A. Boguger

Report Trade Good.

Most of the merchants about the city report that the Christmas trade was fairly good this year, but not as large as had been expected earlier in the season. This fact may be partly due because many of the stores about the city stocked up even larger than has been the habit in the past, and more people are handling Christmas goods. Everybody seems to be pretty well satisfied, however.

New Year Skating.

The skating rink will be open all day New Year's day. The morning session will be from 9 to 12 o'clock, the afternoon session from 2 to 5 and the evening session from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock. The best of music will be furnished both in the afternoon and evening and all are invited to attend. Spectators 10c, Skates 25c.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

P. W. Gullard and Martha E. Zettler both of Marshfield.

Frank S. Toller and Emma B. Pish both of Marshfield.

Chester Roberts and Clara Benson both of Redolph.

John Liscicki of Plover and Julia Oriene of Redolph.

Bryan to Speak Here.

Word has been received that William Jennings Bryan will speak in this city on the 18th of February, on which occasion it is proposed to hold some sort of a reception for the famous Nebraskan.

For the Best Meats

Rick and Case wish to call your attention to the fact that they are running a first class meat market on the cash system. Thirty day accommodation only. Give them a call.

GRANGERS COMING.

State Meeting of the American Society of Equity Meets Here in January.

The state meeting of the American Society of Equity will be held in this city on the tenth and eleventh of January, when it is expected that there will be a large number of delegates in the city from the branch organizations throughout the state.

The American Society of Equity is an organization of farmers which has been organized for the purpose of furthering the interests of grangers, and is similar to several other organizations that have existed throughout the country.

They are making an attempt to better their condition both mentally and financially, and have been gaining greatly in membership for some time past. In places where there was no buyer for their produce, or where they had so long haul as to make the vending of their produce unprofitable, they have established depots where their produce can be taken and then shipped to market in large lots, thus enabling them to get the best market price for commodities that were otherwise almost without a buyer, or could only be disposed of with very little profit.

At the next meeting of the city council it is the intention of that body to appoint committees to see to the comfort of the visitors, and everything possible will be done to make their stay in our city as pleasant as possible.

Improving the Electric Lights.

In view of the fact that for some time past there has been some complaint concerning the electric lights about the city, Manager Kordonat is making an effort to educate the people somewhat along this line.

An incandescent light globe, after being used a certain length of time, begins to get dim, after which time it gives a gradually decreasing amount of light, while it goes on using the same amount of current as it did while giving out its maximum of light. Mr. Kordonat's efforts are being directed toward inducing the people to change their bulbs when they begin to get dim and not continue to use them even after they are giving about one-half the light they were originally intended to. In order to do this he has been distributing lighter fro about the city, accompanying the new bulb with a circular which explains the difficulty and asking the patron to try the new light. He states that in many cases lamps are being used that have been burned for years off and on, and the consequence is that in some cases they are not giving half as much light as they are rated for and which the consumer is paying for. This deficiency is more apparent where small lamps are being used, as the larger high efficiency lamps burn out before they have reached such a poor condition.

Favors Prison Twine.

The state grange of Wisconsin, Patrons of Husbandry, passed important resolutions at the annual session at Madison last week. The grange demands that agriculture be one of the daily courses in rural schools of the state; that the state law regarding standard weights be enforced; that independent and Bell telephone companies make connections where necessary; that a parcel post be established for the establishment of a binder twine factory in the state prison, and a protest is made against the proposed increase in postal rates.

Another Change in Time.

The St. Paul officials have again changed the time of the night passenger which goes south thru this place. The time has again been changed back to 9:55 as it was before, the change going into effect on Monday of this week. It is reported that the change was made on account of the inconvenience it caused patrons of the line further north, where there was but the one road and where all the business of the day had to be a one between the time the morning mail train arrived and the time that the afternoon train left, which was rather short at some places.

Death of L. D. Pritchard.

L. D. Pritchard, who has been a resident of this city during the past year, died on Saturday, Dec. 22 at the age of 84 years. His son, Dr. Millard Pritchard, of Cherokee, Ia., arrived in the city on Monday and left next day with the remains, which will be interred at Janesville.

He is survived by two sons, Guy Pritchard of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Dr. Millard Pritchard of Cherokee, Ia.

Death of Miss Olin.

Miss Florence Olin of Marshfield died at Pueblo, Col., on Saturday, Dec. 15. Miss Olin who was a trained nurse, went to Colorado to nurse her sister, and she was taken sick and died. Miss Olin was well known to a number of our people here, having been called to the city in her professional capacity a number of times. The remains were interred at Marshfield on Tuesday.

Paper Mill Fire.

Fire in the plant of the Wisconsin Pulp and Paper Co. near Stevens Point on Monday caused a damage amounting to about $50,000. The fire started in the wheel room, spreading to the mill proper, damaging the machinery to considerable extent.

Oil Business Paying.

The following circular has been received by the stockholders of the Onondaga Oil Co., and is well explanatory:

To the Stockholders of the Onondaga Oil Company:

I have just wired the secretary and treasurer to pay a 10 per cent dividend as a Christmas present to the stockholders. While the price of oil has not advanced any, still the conditions at the field are somewhat better. The Prairie Oil & Gas Company are taking more oil and it looks now as though in the next six months or year that prices will be considerably higher.

BISHOP M'CABE IS DEAD

NOTED METHODIST CLERGYMAN

PASSES AWAY.

Apoplectic Stroke Results Fatally—His Career as a War Chaplain and Missionary Society Secretary.

New York. — Bishop Charles C. McCabe of the Methodist Episcopal church, died in the New York hospital, at 529 a. m. Wednesday. Death was due to apoplexy, which which the bishop was stricken several days ago while passing through this city on his way to his home in Philadelphia. Mrs. McCabe and the bishop's niece, who have been with him almost constantly since he was stricken, were at the bedside when the noted clergyman passed away.

Bishop McCabe was born at Athens, O., Oct. 11, 1826. He entered the Ohio conference of the Methodist church in 1850 and two years later became chaplain of the one hundred and twenty-second Ohio infantry. He was captured in the battle of Winchester and passed four months in Libby prison. His experiences as a prisoner of war were later recounted on the lecture platform. For many years he was popularly known as "Chaplain McCabe" and the title clung to him even after the general conference of the Methodist church in 1896 made him a bishop.

Following the war he became pastor of a church at Dayton, O., and later was associated as assistant secretary with the board of church extension.

His success as a money-raiser was remarkable and later, as secretary of the Methodist Missionary Society, he added half a million dollars to the annual income of the society. He was a natural leader and his funds were a feature of his plans for his work. He was chosen chancellor of the American university at Washington, Dec. 10, 1902.

The Noted Desperado Couldn't Stand That

A KENTUCKY congressman tells an interesting tale of the execution of a noted desperado in that state some years ago. Just before the sheriff adjusted the noose he asked the usual question whether the man had anything to say.

"No; I think not"—began the convicted one, when he was interrupted by a cheerful voice shouting:

"Say, Bill, if you don't get anything special to say, would you mind giving me fifteen minutes of your time just to let these good people know that I am a candidate for their suffrages?"

"Hold on, there!" shouted the sheriff.

"Who's that?"

"John Blank," volunteered some one, naming a rising young politician, who has since represented his state for a number of years in the house of representatives at Washington.

"Who did he say it was?" whispered the condemned to the sheriff.

"He says it's John Blank."

"I thought I recognized John's voice," the desperado calmly remarked. "Well, he can have my time, all of it. But go ahead and hang me first and let him talk afterward."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Such Is Love.

He—You know, I felt awfully cheap when I asked you to marry me.

She—That's why I accepted. I thought you were a bargain.—New York World.

The Highest.

A hard headed westerner who had "made his pile" had been induced by his wife and daughters to move to New York that they might have the advantages of a more fashionable society than that afforded in Smelter City. It was a stiff fight, but at last their hopes seemed about to be realized, and Mrs. Brown was endeavoring to be at ease with her first "swell" caller.

"Do you attend a high church, Mrs. Brown?" the caller asked.

"Oh, of course; we attend the best," Mrs. Brown replied languidly. "Our pew rent is $1,000 a year."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Suspicious.

A small boy who had been very naughty was first reprimanded, then told that he must take a whipping. He flew upstairs and hid in the far corner under a bed. Just then his father came home. The mother told him what had happened. He went upstairs and proceeded to crawl under the bed toward the youngster, who whispered excitedly:

"Hello, pop! Is she after you too?"—New York Times.

Inopportune.

"Burglars are trying to get into the apartment," said the maid in a terrified whisper.

"Indeed?" answered the actress. "Isn't that unfortunate? I sent my jewelry to be locked up by the safe deposit company yesterday. There isn't a chance of their stealing enough to be worth a six line paragraph in tomorrow's paper."—Washington Star.

Other Side of It.

"Why, young man," said the stern parent, "you certainly don't think I would be foolish enough to let a penniless youth like you marry my daughter, do you?"

"Well, it's up to you," rejoined the poor but nifty youngster. "It's a cinch that no rich young man would marry a girl as homely as she is."—Chicago News.

Another Sort of Fowl.

"The impudence of that young brother of mine!" exclaimed Mrs. Naget. "He just told me I was no chicken when I married you."

"Well," replied her unsympathetic husband, "that's true enough. You weren't a chicken, were you?"

"No; I was a goose."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Weather Wise.

Thirty-two people had been arrested for speeding their motor cars in a little town. At first the justice sat in his office counting the proceeds. As he finished he turned, smiling, to his clerk and said:

"It has been a fine day."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Persistent.

"Lend me $5, old man, will you?"

"Like to accommodate you, but I'm trying to borrow $10 myself."

"Good! As soon as you get it, then, you can lend me five of it."—Cleveland Leader.

Must Pay Claims.

When a party has a just claim against an estate and neglects for some reason to file it within the specified time limit fixed by probate court the claim is to be admitted and tried on as all others, is the decision handed down in the supreme court in a recent case at Sheboygan. The ruling is a most important one and will have a tendency to settle many disputes that have arisen in regard to admission and rejection of claims after the time limit had expired. Many instances of strife over these matters are recorded here from time to time and the establishment of a precedent is gratefully received.

Holiday Dinner Pointers.

It is bad form to growl like a dog when you are gnawing on a turkey bone.

Avoid, if possible, coming to blows over who shall have the wishbone. If you want to play a good joke on the hostess, hit her in the ear with a hot biscuit.

In case you discover pin feathers in your piece of fowl, don't make yourself obnoxious by kicking; pick 'em out and stick 'em on your coat.

We quote from Marion Harland: "In case the turkey proves to be too tough to cut with an ordinary carving knife and fork, it is permissible to dissect the fowl with a hammer and cold chisel."

More than four "helpings" is not considered broad swash in the best families.

In case you hear a sort of currying sound do not be alarmed—it may be the turkey dressing.

Should the turkey show a disposition to slide off the platter, stand up in your chair and put your foot on the bird.

If you ask for liver and get the gizzard, don't raise a rumpus; just slip the gizzard in your pocket. Nothing makes a menter pocket piece than a gizzard that has been properly gizzed.

If the conversation lags, hit the person sitting next to you in the neck with a piece of wet celery.

Be sure and get off the old moss-covered joke about the alliance of Turkey and Greece. It is just as funny to-day as it ever was.—Harlan Babcock

A. Decker, who has been organizing excursion parties for the west, reports that he has been meeting with excellent success, and there will be parties from many of the larger surrounding cities in this vicinity.

Entertained the Old Man.

The employees of the Electric and Water company tendered their employee, G. H. Kordonat, a complimentary dinner yesterday afternoon at the home of L. H. Williams.

The following menu was served: Boned chicken, rabbit, Fricassee chicken, rabbit, Fricassee chicken, rabbit.

Mince pie Cranberry pie Nuts, raisins, grapes, tea, milk.

Cigars Budweiser Beer. After dinner the party assembled in the parlor where songs, recitations, games and card playing were indulged in.

During the afternoon Mr. Kordonat was presented with a beautiful pocket kit. To the surprise of all he in turn presented each employee with a suitable gift.

Retained an Shooting Case. Attorney W. E. Wheeler was in Marshfield last week, where he went on business connected with the recent shooting case in that vicinity.

John Shroeder, of the town of Marshfield, was arrested for shooting Fred L. Frederick, and Mr. Wheeler has been retained by the defendant.

Frederick was walking along the road when he was shot in the thigh. Nobody saw the shooting, but Shroeder was accused of the deed because he and Frederick had been playing attention to the same young lady.

Frederick has recovered sufficiently to be able to be about again. The case was called on the 26th, but an adjournment was taken.

Congregational Services. The pastor of the Congregational church will preach next Sunday morning. At the evening service there will be four addresses, reviewing the most important events or tendencies of the closing year.

Will Install New Electric Light Plant.

The city of Marshfield has purchased the machinery for a new electric plant, when it is installed it is claimed that they will have an equipment that is thoroughly up to date in every respect.

When the plant was purchased by the city the machinery in the place was sadly out of date and they have had to produce their electricity at a great loss compared with plants that are fitted out with modern machinery, and for this reason it was thought that the change would prove a saving in the long run.

The equipment will consist of two engines and two new generators and both will be able to deliver 125 horsepower. New boilers will also be installed.

It is claimed that the new plant will be a great saving to the city, as it will hold their next slow season during January, 1908, and there is no question but what it will be better than the one this year, as it is expected that it will be better equipped and that outsiders will take more interest in it, owing to the fact that the association will be older and better established.

The fact that the last exhibit was so well managed for last when the time comes for the next one. The membership of the association is also increasing, and this will be of considerable benefit to the concern.

Notice to Stockholders. To the stockholders of the Electric & Water Company:

Notice is hereby given, that the annual meeting of stockholders of the Electric & Water company will be held at the City Hall in the city of Grand Rapids on the West side on the 8th day of January, A. D. 1907, at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of electing five directors and such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

It is necessary that a majority of the stock be present in order that any business may be transacted; each stockholder will please bring this fact in mind and be present either in person or represented by a proxy.

D. D. Conway,
Secretary.

Roy Lester Hurt. Word was received here on Monday stating that Roy Lester had been severely injured by falling from a box car while engaged in performing his work as brakeman of the Northwestern road. The accident occurred at Wausau and he was picked up and taken to the hospital at Grand Bay.

C. B. Lester, Roy's father, left here the same day for Green Bay to be at the bedside of his son.

Mr. Lester returned from Green Bay yesterday and reports that while his son was considerably shaken up and bruised by the accident, no bones were broken and there is every indication that he will eventually entirely recover.

There was certainly a narrow escape and he has every reason to be congratulated on the lucky outcome.

C. O. F. Officers. List of officers for the St. Lawrence Court 1511, C. O. F. for the coming year:

Spiritual Director—Rev. J. M. Koryk.

Chief Ranger—John Kobelski.

Vice Chief Ranger—Stevens Luchowski.

Past Chief Ranger—John Kollenda.

Recording Sec.—Joseph J. Quisling.

Financial Sec.—Jos. Deiken.

Treasurer—Joseph Luchowski.

Medical Examiner—Dr. F. P. Pominville.

Trustees—M. Pauloski, 1 year; John Shaddock, 2 years; Max Urbani, 3 years.

D. H. C. R.—M. A. Bogger

Report Trade Good. Most of the merchants about the city report that the Christmas trade was fairly good this year, but not as large as had been expected earlier in the season. The fact may be partly due because many of the stores about the city stocked up even larger than has been the habit in the past, and more people are handling Christmas goods. Everybody seems to be pretty well satisfied, however.

New Year Skating. The skating rink will be open all day New Year's day. The morning session will be from 9 to 12 o'clock, the afternoon session from 2 to 5 o'clock, and the evening session from 7 to 10:30 o'clock. The best of music will be furnished both in the afternoon and evening and all are invited to attend. Spectators 10c, Skates 25c.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. P. W. Gullord and Martha E. Zettler both of Marshfield.

Frank S. Teller and Emma B. Flath both of Marshfield.

Chesler Roberts and Clara Benson both of Rodolph.

John Lisicki of Plover and Julia Gorienski of Rodolph.

Bryan to Speak Here. Word has been received that William Jennings Bryan will speak in this city on the 15th of February, on which occasion it is proposed to hold some sort of a reception for the famous Nebraska man.

For the Best Meats. Rick and Case wish to call your attention to the fact that they are running a first class meat market on the cash system. Thirty day accommodation only. Give them a call.

Officers Elected.

The Grand Rapids Poultry and Pelt Stock association held its annual meeting on Friday afternoon at the office of Egbert & Pratt. The attendance at the meeting was not as large as had been hoped for, but owing to the fact that the meeting came at an unusually busy time, it was as good as could be expected. The officers elected for the ensuing year were as follows:

President—H. H. Voss.

Vice president—H. A. Sampson, Jr.

Superintendent—R. G. Eggert.

Secretary—C. M. Ronne.

The members of the association are well pleased with the outcome of the show held this past year, and when all of the outstanding accounts are collected there will be a small balance left in the treasury.

They will hold their next slow season during January, 1908, and there is no question but what it will be better than the one this year, as it is expected that it will be better equipped and that outsiders will take more interest in it, owing to the fact that the association will be older and better established.

The fact that the last exhibit was so well managed for last when the time comes for the next one. The membership of the association is also increasing, and this will be of considerable benefit to the concern.

Improving the Electric Lights. In view of the fact that for some time past there has been some complaint concerning the electric lights about the city, Manager Kordonat is making an effort to improve the people something along this line.

An incandescent light globe, after being used a certain length of time, begins to get dim, after which time it gives a gradually decreasing amount of light, while it goes on using the same amount of current as it did while giving out its maximum of light.

Mr. Kordonat's efforts are being directed toward inducing the people to change their bulbs when they begin to get dim and not continue to use them even after they are giving about one-half the light they were originally intended to. In order to do this he has been distributing lights free about the city, accompanying the new bulb with a circular which explains the difficulty and asking the patron to try the new light.

It is stated that in many cases lamps are being used that have been burned for years off and on, and the consequence is that in some cases they are not giving half as much light as they are rated for and which the consumer is paying for. This deficiency is more apparent where small lamps are being used, as the larger high-efficiency lamps burn out before they have reached such a poor condition.

Favors Prison Twice. The state grange of Wisconsin, Patrons of Husbandry, passed important resolutions at the annual session at Madison last week. The grange demands that agriculture be one of the daily courses in rural schools of the state; that the state law regarding standard weights be enforced; that independent and Bell telephone companies make connections where necessary; that a parcels post be established; that the legislature appropriate for the establishment of a binder twine factory in the state prison, and a protest is made against the proposed increase in postal rates.

Another Change in Time. The St. Paul officials have again changed the time of the night passenger which goes south thru this place. The time has again been changed back to 9:25 as it was before, the change going into effect on Monday of this week. It is reported that the change was made on account of the inconvenience it caused patrons of the line further north, where there was but one road and where all the business of the day had to be a one between the time the morning mail train arrived and the time that the afternoon train left, which was rather short at some places.

Death of L. D. Pritchard. L. D. Pritchard, who has been a resident of this city during the past year, died on Saturday, Dec. 22 at the age of 81 years. His son, Dr. Millard Pritchard, of Cherokee, Ia., arrived in the city on Monday and left next day with the remains, which will be interred at Janesville.

He is survived by two sons, Guy Pritchard of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Dr. Millard Pritchard of Cherokee, Ia.

Death of Miss Olin. Miss Florence Olin of Marshfield died at Pueblo, Col., on Saturday, Dec. 16. Miss Olin who was a trained nurse, went to Colorado to nurse her sister, and she was taken sick and died. Miss Olin was well known to a number of our people here, having been called to the city in her professional capacity a number of times. The remains were interred at Marshfield on Tuesday.

Paper Mill Fire. Fire in the plant of the Wisconsin Pulp and Paper Co. near Stevens Point on Monday caused a damage amounting to about $50,000. The fire started in the wheel room and spread to the mill proper, damaging the machinery to considerable extent.

Grangers Coming. The state meeting of the American Society of Equity will be held in this city on the tenth and eleventh of January, when it is expected that there will be a large number of delegates in the city from the branch organizations throughout the state.

The American Society of Equity is an organization of farmers which has been organized for the purpose of furthering the interests of grangers, and is similar to several other organizations that have existed throughout the country.

They are making an attempt to better their condition both mentally and financially, and have been gaining greatly in membership for some time past. In places where there was no buyer for their produce, or where they had to look a haul as to make the hauling and the price of the produce, they have established depots where their produce can be taken and then shipped to market in large lots, thus enabling them to get the best market price for commodities they were otherwise almost without a buyer, or could only be disposed of with very little profit.

At the next meeting of the city council it is the intention of that body to appoint committees to see to the comfort of the visitors, and every thing possible will be done to make their stay in our city as pleasant as possible.

Oil Business Paying. The following circular has been received by the stockholders of the Onondaga Oil Co., and is self explanatory:

To the Stockholders of the Onondaga Oil Company:

I have just paid the secretary and treasurer to pay a 10 per cent dividend as a Christmas present to the stockholders. While the price of oil has not advanced any, still the conditions at the field are somewhat better. The Prairie Oil & Gas Company are taking more oil and it looks now as though in the next six months or year that prices will be considerably higher.

I just returned from the fields and it is an absolute fact that we will have two pipe lines to the Gulf. This in itself should relieve the congestion and improve the conditions. The well that is brought in on the south line of lease 71 is holding up to about 75 barrels per day and it is my impression that the well that we have started to drill off-setting from 71 well will be a better well for the reason that we believe that the 71 people are just on the edge of the pool. I found everything in first-class condition on the lease and the stockholders need have no alarm that everything is not being conducted economically and to the best interest of everyone concerned. It has been and will continue to be the policy of the management to keep our company free from speculators and speculation, and under this policy we feel that the best interests of the stockholders would be preserved.

The secretary will send out a notice of the annual meeting to be held at Shiocton January 9th and he will also send out a notice stating that it is the wish of the majority of the stockholders that the meeting be called and adjourned until January 15th, as it will be impossible for several of the officers to be present on January 9th. The meeting will be called, however, by a few and immediately adjourned until January 15th, and we hope for a full attendance. If you cannot attend the adjourned meeting on January 15th, please send me your proxy.

Thanking you for the confidence vested in me during the year, I remain

Yours very respectfully,
G. A. Kerr,
Pres.

Still Considering Plans. The trading school committee met a number of architects in this city on Friday and looked over a number of plans that were submitted, but nothing definite was decided upon and this will not be done until their next meeting which occurs on the second of January. They have plenty of time on the matter and feel that it is better to go slowly and hear from all before any decided action is taken in the matter.

Cheese Makers' Convention. The Wisconsin Cheese Makers' Association will hold its annual convention at Milwaukee on the 10th, 11th and 12th of January. The officers of the association have made special efforts to provide a program of unusual interest and benefit to the members and all interested in the subject of cheese making. The program includes addresses of interest not only to practical cheese makers but also to patrons and dairy farmers. The foreign cheese interests of the state will receive special attention and speakers of national reputation have been engaged for various sessions. The purpose and object of the Wisconsin Cheese Makers' Association is for the education of its members for better work in the art of cheese making, the care and management of factories, the sale of their products and the weeding out of incompetency in the business of cheese making.

In connection with the convention there will be an important exhibit of the various kinds of cheese manufactured in Wisconsin and the exhibit this year will be of particular interest because awards will be made for the scoring of cheese covering a period of nine months. Cheese of any kind, of any type, style or form may be offered in the contest and early application should be made to U. S. Baer, Secretary of the Association, Madison, Wis.

Changes in Saloon Business. Charles Dixon has bought out George Froehotte's interest in the Dixon house buffet, and will hereafter be the sole proprietor. Mr. Froehotte will remain at the place to attend to the wants of customers.

A Happy New Year. The Tribune wishes its many readers a happy and prosperous new year.

FOR SALE—Desirable, level farm lands, located near this city, on long time or monthly payment.

Geo. N. Wood.

Oil Stock Moving. Saul Preston was in Appleton on Saturday where he disposed of some of his Onondaga Oil Co. stock, requiring "his three times what he paid for it only nine months ago. This proved a pretty good investment, as several dividends were also paid on the stock.

Mrs. Otto Roenies is spending the holidays at her home in Watertown.

GRANGERS COMING.

The state meeting of the American Society of Equity will be held in this city on the tenth and eleventh of January, when it is expected that there will be a large number of delegates in the city from the branch organizations throughout the state.

The American Society of Equity is an organization of farmers which has been organized for the purpose of furthering the interests of grangers, and is similar to several other organizations that have existed throughout the country.

They are making an attempt to better their condition both mentally and financially, and have been gaining greatly in membership for some time past. Improving the Electric Lights. In view of the fact that for some time past there has been some complaint concerning the electric lights about the city, Manager Kordonat is making an effort to improve the people something along this line.

An incandescent light globe, after being used a certain length of time, begins to get dim, after which time it gives a gradually decreasing amount of light, while it goes on using the same amount of current as it did while giving out its maximum of light.

Mr. Kordonat's efforts are being directed toward inducing the people to change their bulbs when they begin to get dim and not continue to use them even after they are giving about one-half the light they were originally intended to. In order to do this he has been distributing lights free about the city, accompanying the new bulb with a circular which explains the difficulty and asking the patron to try the new light.

It is stated that in many cases lamps are being used that have been burned for years off and on, and the consequence is that in some cases they are not giving half as much light as they are rated for and which the consumer is paying for. This deficiency is more apparent where small lamps are being used, as the larger high-efficiency lamps burn out before they have reached such a poor condition.

Favors Prison Twice. The state grange of Wisconsin, Patrons of Husbandry, passed important resolutions at the annual session at Madison last week. The grange demands that agriculture be one of the daily courses in rural schools of the state; that the state law regarding standard weights be enforced; that independent and Bell telephone companies make connections where necessary; that a parcels post be established; that the legislature appropriate for the establishment of a binder twine factory in the state prison, and a protest is made against the proposed increase in postal rates.

Another Change in Time. The St. Paul officials have again changed the time of the night passenger which goes south thru this place. The time has again been changed back to 9:25 as it was before, the change going into effect on Monday of this week. It is reported that the change was made on account of the inconvenience it caused patrons of the line further north, where there was but one road and where all the business of the day had to be a one between the time the morning mail train arrived and the time that the afternoon train left, which was rather short at some places.

Death of L. D. Pritchard. L. D. Pritchard, who has been a resident of this city during the past year, died on Saturday, Dec. 22 at the age of 81 years. His son, Dr. Millard Pritchard, of Cherokee, Ia., arrived in the city on Monday and left next day with the remains, which will be interred at Janesville.

He is survived by two sons, Guy Pritchard of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Dr. Millard Pritchard of Cherokee, Ia.

South Dakota.

Activity in western railway development still continues to bring out new territory and build up new towns in South Dakota.

The new line of the Pierre, Rapid City & North-Western which is being constructed to connect the present terminus of the Chicago & North-Western Ry. at Pierre with the Hills line of that road at Rapid City, has been opened to traffic as far west as Van Meter, and about December will be thrown open as far west as Midland, about fifty miles from Pierre. Midland promises to be one of the most important towns and commercial centers on the new line.

From the western end the line is also being opened as rapidly as constructed to the region between Rapid City and the south fork of the Cheyenne River.

This entire region west of the Missouri River has heretofore been considered only as a grazing country, but evidences of its value for agricultural purposes are rapidly being brought to light. The heavy black soil is rich in those chemical properties which insure continued heavy crops of grain for many generations, and the bringing of railway facilities into the region will give an impetus to grain growing and general farming.

Another line is being rapidly constructed in the Rosebud country in the southern part of the state. At the time of the opening of a portion of the Rosebud Reservation the Chicago & North-Western built an extension as far west as Bonsteel, and the line now growing land and wheat country that were thrown open to the public at that time have well repaid the forethought and courage of the settlers who developed them. The result is a splendid farming country covering many square miles of splendid land in the American corn belt.

The line is now being extended to Gregory near the eastern border of Tripp County. It is likely some action will be taken by congress at the forthcoming session to open up a portion of this country, which is now a part of the Rosebud Reservation.

The price of lands taken up two years ago in Gregory County has advanced rapidly until they are now selling at from $20 to $30 an acre. It is expected that the government will recognize this fact by providing for the Indians a fair price for any lands that may be hereafter removed from that part of the public domain, but even without this the settlers will find a great opportunity here for establishing themselves in a new home.

There is every little rough land, the soil is a rich black loam, with some timber, ash, elm and box elder, along the creeks, and the grass is very heavy; in fact, wild hay can be put up with very little trouble on the thousands of acres of good farming land found in Gregory and Tripp Counties.

There is not a printer in the Ohio penitentiary. Bankers are there in plenty. More than twenty are there, and more are on the way. Several convict banks might be operated, with men to spare.

Enough lawyers are there to take care of an enormous amount of legal business. Doctors, brokers and other "eminent" respectable citizens are not lacking. Business men, farmers, mechanics and representatives of almost every other department of industrial activity are common there.

But there is not a printer. The fact throws new light on character that has long been commonly judged.

COYS. AT CALVING TIME.

Their Care and Feed Before and After Parturition.

A Wisconsin farmer, writing to Houghton's magazine on the care of cows at calving says: It is a good practice to milk a cow previous to calving if the udder is greatly distended and hard. We practiced it at first with some hesitation, having never heard of any one doing it before, but no bad results ever followed it. In some instances the cow has been milked regularly once a day for a week before the calf came. It certainly is an act of humanity, as it lessens the animal's discomfort and often prevents the bad effects of a caked or inflamed udder. We would never allow a cow at such a time to be exposed to severe storms even if the weather should be warm.

If the cow is ready to calve in October or later she should be placed in a roomy and well littered stall at night; in the day time, if the weather is pleasant, she may run out. Nothing but coarse should be accorded any man who permits his cow to calve in the stall, whether fastened with tie or stallion, yet it is not uncommon to hear of such things being done.

We can see no harm in leaving the calf with its mother for a day. It gets its nourishment in the natural manner and is stronger at the end of twenty-four hours than when removed at once and fed from a pail.

If there is inflammation of the udder bathe with hot water, massaging it gently. Comphorated sweet oil is excellent to remove caked condition, but if the cow has been milked beforehand this is not so liable to occur.

Nine times out of ten where milk fever sets in it is caused by a chill to the system. For this reason avoid cold water and avoid allowing the cow to stand in a draft of air. Give a pail of water which has the chill removed. A drop of ground oats and warm water containing a little salt is excellent for any cow within a few hours after calving.

The quantity should be about two quarts. A bran mash is also good. A cow should be brought to full feed slowly after she has dropped her calf. Begin with bran or ground oats or middlings, avoiding corn, which is too heating to the system, but feed generously after a couple of weeks.

We have rarely ever given any corn meal at such times, simply because such a remedy did not appear to be required. The talking out before calving does a great deal toward warding off trouble and insuring normal conditions, strange as this may appear. In cold weather cows before calving should be fed little grain, but plenty of roughage, clover hay, ensilage, corn fodder and roots, if possible. Bran is excellent and should form the principal food aside from these rough feeds. Plenty of water is essential. It acts as a cleanser and flushes the bowels and kidneys naturally and effectively.

Whole raw milk is more completely digested than either pasteurized or cooked milk. It is very rich in fat and is easily digested as raw whole milk. Experiments with calves proved this, and recent observations made in large hospitals proved the same to be true of the human.

Improving the Dairy Herd. The English dairy associations, after a long period of observation, decided that extra quality must be looked for by improving the breeds and judicious selections rather than by any special foods or methods of feeding.

MAXIMS FOR DAIRYMEN. Cooling the milk in a temperature of 60 degrees Fahrenheit or below, as soon as it is drawn, checks the action of bacteria, thus adding to the keeping quality of milk. Boiling milk at the dairy prevents contamination during delivery and subsequently. Everything in the dairy room must be kept clean, and the floor must be damp. Under these conditions germs cannot fly about. The utensils used in the dairy should be washed and sterilized after each using.

The milking period. It is neither profitable nor necessary for a cow to dry more than four to six weeks. Especially should young cows be watched and not allowed to acquire the habit of drying up too soon.—Farm Visitor.

When the Calf Comes. Rich foods should be withheld for a short time prior and subsequent to calving. When the calf is dropped the mother of the cow should have prompt attention. An obstacle may be removed from the teat the first hour that later would baffle science.

Whereas, Again our circle is broken and we are called upon to mourn the loss of our beloved and esteemed member, Mary Ann Peller; therefore be it Resolved, That while we, W. R. O. No. 145, Grand Rapids, Wis., bow in humble submission to God's will, we tenderly condole with the husband and relatives of our deceased member and commend them for consolation to Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That though we sadly miss her, we will ever retain precious memories of kind words spoken and the good that she has done. Let us, wiser, then with all the fraternal relations of life, and profit by her Christian example.

Resolved, That our chapter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our lodge and a copy sent to the husband. Weep not for her for she hath crossed the river.

We almost saw him meet her on the shore, And lead her through the golden gate Where never sorrow or death can enter any more. Weep not for her that she hath reached before us. The safe, warm shelter of her long loved home; Weep not for her, she may be kneeling. In quiet wonder, when we, too, may come. Weep not for her, think how she may be kneeling. Gazing her full upon the Master's face, A loving, humble smile, but half revealing. Two perfect peace she feels in Mary's pale.

Fred Beall is Victor Over Rogers. Fred Beall, champion catch-as-catch-can wrestler, defeated his title at Chicago Friday night in a match with Charles Rogers, the New England champion, whom he defeated in straight falls. Beall took the first one with a head and croch hold in 11:41 and the second after a hard struggle with a head hold in 21:30.

The little champion undertook a big job when he tackled Rogers, as the latter had weight and height in his favor. The Bostoner overcame him by ten inches and out-weighed him by fifty pounds. Besides this Rogers was no green hand at the game. He was up to all the fine points of wrestling, and only a quick for a big man, and wonderfully strong. The little wrestling "demon," however, never gave his giant opponent a moment's rest and fought him all over the ring while on their feet and made life miserable for the man when they were down.

It was the general opinion of the spectators that Rogers was secured simply as a setup, but before he had been in action five minutes he had been overthrown. He was then held in a clinch for a moment and then he was again overthrown. He was then held in a clinch for a moment and then he was again overthrown. He was then held in a clinch for a moment and then he was again overthrown.

Rogers got Beall underneath, and then only momentarily, as the little fellow slipped his hand out from under Rogers' arm and got on top.

Dos Moines Daily News:—Fred Beall won a couple of falls from Charles Hackenschmidt Thursday evening at the Shubert, the second fall coming at the end of one hour and eighteen minutes of wrestling. The match was fast, fast enough so that it will go on record with the Carey-Fillmore and Burns-Hackenschmidt matches, which have held the boards for speedy work before.

The match showed again the clever defensive work of Hackenschmidt, and the more than clever work of Beall, the latter never being in danger for a minute of being thrown, Hackenschmidt appearing to fail to get a hold upon him.
